

Scenic, fresh and welcoming environment

OAKWELL HOUSE

Oakwell House is a six bed modern detached property located in Hayton, an agricultural parish just outside the market town of Retford. The home has great access to local countryside, scenic walks and the historic Chesterfield Canal, giving good community access.

Oakwell House boasts an enclosed private garden providing a safe environment in which to relax and have fun. There is a large spacious communal lounge, five large bedrooms with ensuite facilities.

The home supports females with mental health and dual diagnosis conditions such as Asperger's and learning disability, which focus on self development and a pathway back into the community.

In addition, the property has a separate single occupancy apartment consisting of its own entrance kitchen, lounge/dining area and bedroom with ensuite bathroom suited to any gender.

The property has been newly refurbished to the highest CQC standards with a traditional yet modern interior.
